Dear Judge Failla:

The Government respectfully writes concerning the sentencing date for Amin Majidi in the above-captioned case. There is currently a control date of April 29, 2020 for Majidi's sentencing, and the Government committed to writing the Court by January 29, 2020 as to whether it intended to keep the April 29 date as a firm sentencing date or to seek an adjournment of sentencing. At this time the Government respectfully requests that the control date of April 29, 2020 be adjourned for approximately 45 days, and that the Government be permitted to notify the Court by February 28, 2020 whether the Government seeks to proceed to sentencing on the new date or whether the Government seeks another adjournment of Majidi's sentencing.

Respectfully submitted,

AUDREY STRAUSS
